Jenny Scott releases new EP “Deep Black Hole”.

Release date: 01/27/2017

The German singer-songwriter Jenny Scott has just released her new five-track Studio EP “Deep Black Hole”. A collection of songs with fresh layers of modern pop; mixed with good old jazzy and blues style. The recording features Jenny on the vocals as well as on rhythm and lead guitar. Working together with other talented young musicians in percussion, piano and bass, every song has a complete band arrangement showing the vibrant energy that musicians are able to create together.

About Deep Black Hole

Isolated and broke but focused on her dream to make music, Jenny Scott began the work on her new self-funded EP two years ago. During this time Jenny wrote songs as a way of self-exploration and discovery of her sounds and her soul, as she doubted about herself and thought about quitting music. After learning to live together with her fears and demons and finding a growing support on her followers in social media Jenny comes now more energetic than ever, to show that making music is a craft that above all should come from the heart and the soul.

*“Jenny is a unique and exceptional talent and one to keep an ear on in the future.”
– John Braheny (Author of “The Craft & Business of Songwriting”, Los Angeles CA.)*

In every track of “Deep Black Hole” Jenny is accompanied by Marcel Siegers who supports the mood of each song with playful rhythm and sound patterns on drums and percussion. The keys arrangements played by Christoph Siegenthaler and the groovy bass lines from Andi Kober add shades to the songs in a dynamic band setting.

On the title and opening track “Deep Black Hole” Jenny processes her difficult relationship with her father. Scott wrote “Don’t Turn Around” to remind herself of not giving up on her dream on becoming a full time musician. “While working on my new EP I was really in a bad shape. I felt stuck, working so hard to reach my goals and not seeing any significant progress”, Jenny says. “I was about to leave it behind, to stop but then I realized that giving up is not like me. So I decided to fight my doubts with the best tool that I know: writing music. That was how “Don’t Turn Around” was born.

*“I can’t believe this is you whom I see, the one so sure she could fly.”
from “Don’t Turn Around”*

Being an admirer for Patti Smith, Jenny seeks the inspiration that gives her strength and direction on her way into music. The legendary performer and poet, without knowing it, influenced her on the writing of the song “Building A Good Name”.

“Build a good name. Keep your name clean. Don’t make compromises, don’t worry about making a bunch of money or being successful — be concerned with doing good work and make the right choices and protect your work. And if you build a good name, eventually, that name will be its own currency.” – Patti Smith

The soulful uplifting love song “Good Will Keep Coming” that had already been released as a single with its music video in early 2016 leads us to “Walking Alone”, the last track that with its chosen chords and structure displays the smooth and jazzy touch which is the signature of the talented young musician Jenny Scott.
